

PROPHETIC INDICATIONS

A Publication of The Glorious Restoration
Coming Changes and the Shape of Things to Come

By Ken Purvis

In our first issue I shared the beginnings of my journey regarding "Ancient Prophecies Over This Land," directing my focus toward the future of the planet, and especially our nation. Most notable is the focus on the land itself due to coming cataclysmic changes, impacted both by prophecy and nature. I often will use the phrase "COMING CHANGES" to refer to these events, which is also the title of the first word I received detailing what was to come. That word came July 27, 2007, when I was staying near Death Valley, CA, during my second trip west.

In 1995 when I received the very first communication regarding "Ancient prophecies over this land ... 500 years ago," as previously stated, I was fairly certain these would have to be Native American prophecies or of similar origin. I then began to recognize their significance to my own natural and spiritual journey being partly Native American. At sixteen years of age I received the Baptism of the Holy Spirit; spoke, danced, and chanted, for nearly two hours in what was clearly a Native American tongue. Yet it would not be until 2006, the beginning of my westward travels, I would have multiple encounters I later recognized as divinely directed. One such occurrence was in the home of a lady I met at the Louisiana gatherings, along with certain others also attending. It was a spontaneous moment as various ones showed up without any preplanning or invitation in the Central Valley of California, one of the world's most productive agricultural regions.

We would gather and share during the day as the Holy Spirit directed. My nightly sleep became interrupted due to praying intensely in the Spirit, waking me as I did so. Fortunately, I kept a small digital recorder at my bedside as words began coming which I recorded. All I recall of that very first communication was, "this valley will be flooded with water." Later that day as I walked among endless rows of farms filling that valley, I realized this was a major contributor to our national food supply. My first response was both to protest and reject what I felt was the kind of "judgment" typical of those who cater to a "doom and gloom" mentality.

(To be continued)

16-1123-03 NIGHT WORDS-YOU WERE SHOWN AT A CERTAIN SEASON THE FLOODING OF VALLEYS.

You were shown at a certain season of the flooding of valleys and the eruption of waters coming from the earth itself.

- There shall come a collapsing of mountains.
- There shall come sudden destruction upon certain corridors of the planet.

For the planet is divided in sections and segments. It is like SEVEN great sections of the earth shall begin to REACT and RESPOND toward each other. And in the SHIFTING of the EARTH on its AXIS, as once you were told, there will come a sudden CHANGE of weather patterns. The face of the earth shall begin to give way to forces beneath itself.

And there shall be places of SAFETY and REFUGE that My people shall be directed to gather and turn toward such places to prepare for the things that are coming.

- You shall be prepared also for that which is to come.
- There shall be places of refuge and safety.

For these shall be places of PROVISION and I Myself will PROVIDE for those who are designated to go forth through this time in PREPARATION for the COMING AGE.

Therefore, look within your HEART

- to trust the WORD,
- to trust My GRACE to keep you, to keep you from that which is coming forth in its appointed time. For you are not appointed for destruction, but to obtain salvation, and also to declare the words necessary to complete the course of events that long ago have been set in motion. You can only PREPARE your HEART.

- You cannot physically prepare yourself for what is coming;
- you can merely prepare your HEART.

For

- I will KEEP you.
- I will SUSTAIN you and
- I will BRING you FORTH.

For I will SHIFT the consciousness and the attitude of humanity in a direction it has not anticipated:

- Things for which it has not prepared itself, but
- things which are necessary to REMOVE the force of DESTRUCTION and DIVISION that so deeply DIVIDES the SOUL.

Hear MY WORD. prepare your HEART. Let your HEART become a HAVEN for MY WORD. For things even that you speak and teach shall suddenly SHIFT and come into a more vivid CLARITY and SEQUENTIAL understanding. You shall SEE the WORD in DIMENSIONS you have never realized before. And you understand that

- your SOUL is deeply embedded in these things and
- their unfolding is a culmination of AGES and SEASONS that long have passed and have pointed toward THIS DAY and THIS TIME."
