Coming Changes and the Shape of Things to Come

by Ken Purvis

That experience would for me be the beginning of the "Night Words," as I later described them, because I would typically be awakened from a deep sleep praying in the spirit. Though I recorded a number of those words unfortunately most were somehow lost or erased. However, I vividly remember taking a walk before leaving that vast agriculture basin and how I was suddenly interrupted by the voice of the Holy Spirit, telling me what I would often hear later: "This valley shall be flooded with water." Obviously, this was not a Night Word, which may be why I could recall it so well. It was also the moment I began my protest against what I perceived as a highly judgmental prediction due to destruction of a major food source. It went on to say that it would not be initially flooded from the ocean but as the result of an eruption in that area. I could not imagine how that would be possible. Returning back to the house I shared this with my friend, Dean, who was quite into physics. He quickly responded: "Ken, we are only a few miles from the St. Andreas Fault. If there were such a shift it would suck water in from everywhere." Having such limited understanding of that possibility my resistance just met its first objection.

Since my final destination of that trip would be Baton Rouge LA, due to a conference I had to attend as part of my work, our hostess decided she was going to join us for the remainder of the trip having business in that same area. Speaking of her I recall an incident along the way when she suddenly spoke up and said, "I have a yen for custard pie." I turned to her and said, "Okay, let's go get it." She was quite surprised at my response to which I replied, "If you have a desire for something then there is a reason for it." Having just arrived in Portland Oregon, finding a restaurant with bountiful selection of pies seemed an easy task. Strangely we went to three restaurants of the same chain before being directed to the right one, taking us further away from our course. It would, however, turn out to be a divinely directed moment; one that began to put the pieces of my puzzle in place.

20-0716-01 NIGHT WORDS-THERE SHALL COME SWEEPING OVER THE MOUNTAINS A VAST FLOOD OF WATER

"There shall come sweeping over the mountains a vast flood of water and fill the VALLEY beyond. A sudden jolt, a force, a tremor, shall dislodge a FAULT; an erupting force shall cause great disturbance. This valley below shall be flooded, and the volume of water shall spread into surrounding areas; particularly this valley shall be flooded.

- It is a moment of sudden destruction coming without warning.
- It shall begin a series as there will be aftershocks and tremors.

Even mountains shall give way to a violent force, a shaking of great winds shall also accompany these sudden SHIFTS and MOVEMENTS. These shall be of such magnitude; they will be sustained forces that seem endless.

PREPARE your heart for the receiving of these things that shall come to you with greater clarity, understanding and vision.

- The target location of these things shall affect many people.
- It will come with great force and a great volume of water shall move through as a result and flood this Valley.
- This beginning of violent eruptions shall signal a change, a new direction.

PREPARE your heart for the understanding of these things. It will be made clearer to you even the location of these things. Let your heart enter into an understanding as to the nature of these eruptions. You were also told WHY their occurrence would come to you:

- Because they are associated with previous communications spoken over these lands, these areas.
- But these are the result of SHIFTINGS occurring beneath the ground."

20-0914-01 NIGHT WORDS-LONG BEFORE THE WHITE MAN CAME THE EARTH WAS REGARDED AS SACRED

Long before the white man came the earth was regarded as sacred. As you are aware it is referred to as 'our mother.'

- For it gives birth to all things living.
- It nurtures all things living and
- then it welcomes all things living at the end of their cycle.

As you have been shown once again the earth will flourish, it will prosper, it will abound, it will produce.

- There will be great harvests and
- then there will be great harvest feasts.

But now it must undergo much change; it must purge itself of iniquity and violence. It must cleanse itself of darkness and abuse. But it shall endure though it go through great upheaval. If you recall as in Scripture the earth was in a state of great chaos in its beginning. Yet when creation was called forth into being

- it came forth in order and harmony and beauty.
- It responded to the sound of my voice and it moved forth in orderly patterns and stages.

You will learn to have a greater appreciation for the earth yourself, in your travels, in your visions, in your dreams. Even now as you enjoy walking along the seashore to ground, it puts you in touch because

- the earth is a living organism;
- it has an intelligence.
- It has its unique sounds, colors, frequencies.

You once asked to be able to travel to energy centers around the globe, to be near and to experience such places. These are places whose surface reaches even to the core of the earth itself.

- There is such a living intelligence in the planet;
- it is in such harmony (and) in touch with itself.

When the Scripture declares, 'Creation groans awaiting the manifestation of the sons of God,' that it may be relieved of its great burden, its pain and suffering; it is like a woman in travail to give birth yet can only bring forth pain and suffering. The earth is weary. The earth is tired, but it will know a day of rebirth, renewal, revival and reformation.

- It will go through a radical change itself.
- It must throw off the weight of destruction.
- It must be cleansed of the memories of violence and destruction.

But

- there will come forth new generations that will honor the earth because they will honor each other.
- They will honor sources of life and the harvest feasts will be times of great honor and celebration.

You will witness these things.

Learn to appreciate the earth, to communicate with it, to be in touch with it, to be in harmony and draw strength from it. For you know that

- you were taken from the earth as far as your physical being and nature is concerned.
- You were called forth from it;

yet you are SPIRIT, but your SOUL is also joined to the earth. You will return one day to the sound, the beauty, the harmony and the HEART of the earth.

- In that day you will know there is no death; there is (only) change.
- It is like the changing of shape patterns.

Changes are the result of inner communication. Even now the earth is going through much upheaval and change, seeking to throw off the weight of humanity-- the darkness, the violence, the judgment, the pain, the destruction.

You will learn to communicate with the earth as well as the heavens above. You will learn to honor, to appreciate, even to give offerings to. You will yet travel to places that still have preserved a sense of balance, harmony, and order, where the land has not been overdeveloped. You will be carried in spirit even to such places. For you see,

- you have lost touch with the earth.
- You have lost touch with the feeling of what it is like to encounter generations in a single moment.

Let your heart and mind be renewed. It is necessary for your health to be restored to be in touch with the earth, to be in touch with silence, sacredness, sacred space. You will be brought into a place of rest, quietness, stillness, harmony; to become one with LIFE -- sound, color, energy, presence, and joy.

- For that which gives life, which brings forth life, does so out of a state of JOY.
- For the opposite of joy is pain.

You have known pain in your body deep within your soul, yet you will undergo much change to be restored, to be healed, to be renewed, to be transformed, to be shifted into a completely different energy pattern. To restore harmony and order, that you be free from haste and waste, violence, anger, agitation, conflict, all forms of confusion. You will come back to a place of harmony, rhythm, flowing with LIFE.

- But yet you will see the violence, you will speak it forth.
- You will not get caught up in it or suffer from it, but you will witness it as well as see it in the spirit.

Pay attention to these things. Be in touch with the earth. She has a voice and she has a message. She has instructions to give you. Angels also attend unto the planet. There are spirits of the land kingdom. Everything has a voice, has a purpose, has a position, a placement. Let your heart now prepare to enter into these states of change, so that you can enter into a state of harmony and order, deep communication, and appreciation. For as you go through such stages of CHANGE with the earth, you will realize that FEAR has left you. For when violence leaves, confusion, chaos and conflict leaves, and FEAR has no voice, no base, no purpose.

This day let your HEART come into stillness, oneness, harmony, order, that you may harmonize and

- discover meaning within your soul,
- discover existence that it TIMELESS deep within the SOUL.

Earth is not an imagination. What men have brought forth upon it is another matter. [Earth was designed or created to fully support and maintain man with nothing lacking.]

Let your heart and mind, this day, be healed and restored from the forces and voices of destruction that have run their course through your mind, heart and emotions.

- Come now to a place of stillness and
- learn how to CENTER and FOCUS and LISTEN and move within a new frequency.

The reason you both have been cautioned to 'guard your impulses,' to 'guard your appetites,' because this, too, is how you get caught up in the violence, the haste, the indulgence, and self-will, and you lose all sense of appreciation for where even the things you partake of are taken from.

- Learn to HONOR even that which you take into your body, and
- you will have far less need to do so.

You will realize there is living matter, living substance, in those things. Honor them. Take time to APPRECIATE them. Your body will undergo changes to help you adjust and not require so much because of demand, pressure, anxiety, and haste.

LIFE is ENERGY. Life supports or sustains itself because it is one with itself. Learn to blend and harmonize even with the wind, the waves, the clouds, the sounds of nature, motion, change.

- Everything has a VOICE.
- Everything cries out to be HEARD . . . LISTEN!

Listen deep within and you will hear SOUNDS coming from the depth of your being. Even through your bones you will witness SOUND and ENERGY. This is all part of correction, healing, and restoration. This is part of the SHIFT of the AGES. Even when you look at your plants you rejoice to see new growth, even as you are disappointed to see leaves and branches wither and decay.

- You will become ONE with life and you will see life flourish in your presence rather than die.
- You will sense a deep love for every expression of life knowing it is all one.

Even as every wave of the ocean is one, so is every expression of life one. There was a time when earth sang its own song. Every part was in harmony and there was great joy.

Let

- JOY come to your SOUL and
- LAUGHTER come into your HEART,
- PEACE come into your MIND,
- BALANCE come into your WILL.

You will be amazed how such intunement with nature, with life, will heal and restore you and nurture you once again. And you will witness the return of life and longevity. The NEW DAY: Enter into willingly, become part of it and one with it, and demand less of it and it will give more to you. Sing to the elements. Sing to the heavens. Sing to the birds, the creatures that crawl upon the face of the earth and that which passes through the seas. Sing! Play your flute. Sing! Honor and speak to it and you will begin to hear it speak back to you. You will move into a new dimension of life as a result. You will feel and sense and know in a way you have not for ages. 'This is the DAY the Lord has made; rejoice and be glad in it,' for you are returning to your mother. And your Father will rejoice over you and be glad, and once again your SOUL will be renewed, restored, changed, that you may birth forth a new beginning, a new day, a NEW AGE."
