"Coming Changes and the Shape of Things to Come"

by Ken Purvis

We are living in a moment representing a SHIFT between the AGES. It is a transitional period when the contrast between light and darkness shall become very pronounced. I am not speaking of a contrast between people as to make a distinction, but between TRUTH and DECEPTION. The news media as well as social media seems to have exploded into a war of dominance of the airways and printed page, not to give news but to manipulate perception. Current news has little to do with what is actually happening outwardly but controlling what information we have access to and making it fit within allowed narratives. Such deception only breeds contempt and arrogance, causing deeper division within the SOUL of humanity.

More than ever, we must learn to trust our inner voice or spirit, in contrast to what we see and hear outwardly, allowing the Holy Spirit to judge for us rather than our ego. He alone, being the "Spirit of Truth," is capable of separating light from darkness. God's plan for "the restoration of all things," always comes through a designated people He has chosen to bring forth His WORD to all humanity and to be a demonstration of that WORD. The following is part one of a recent word:

21-0922 NIGHT WORDS-THE PURPOSE OF YOUR SPEAKING

"The PURPOSE of your SPEAKING is to set the WORD in motion. It is like starting a fire, once it is ignited it burns until it burns out. In the same way these WORDS will run their course like a fire; they will consume the imagination, the resistance, the violence, the judgment, the animosity, and all that is resistant in the HEART to LOVE. Only the WORD can accomplish this, and yet it must move out of the power of the Holy Spirit in the heart of that one who receives the WORD. And it will run its course throughout humanity, throughout the world, and yet even the heavens above will be purged of the iniquity, the shame, the violence, and all that strives in the heart of man against his neighbor, against his brother.

It is given you to understand the necessity of releasing these things; for it is a flame that yet must be ignited, it must run its course. As it stands, the darkness--the violence that is in the SOUL of humanity, is self-consuming. It destroys the very SOUL that breeds it, thinking that in their attack they take for themselves what they will, or they destroy what they would. But it is self-consuming. That is why it is given you to construct in spirit a HOUSE, a relationship, a union in which SOULS join to restore fellowship, to restore the ONENESS--the UNION of Christ, to rebuild that which has been torn down or fragmented. For you see, this is the true TEMPLE of the Lord.

Understand that in this hour the things that are to be spoken, that are to be released, are necessary in their timing to be released. For there is that which must run its course even quickly. Like a forest fire it must quickly consume all that is in its path, because the forces of destruction that are being released in the heart of humanity are of such a nature of violence and power that Heaven will not stand idly by. But even now heavenly beings are given their assignment and are moving forth in their proper course...

For you see, there is both a rising and falling. There is that which will collapse and fall into ruin, into decay, into destruction, and into ashes. But as you have also been shown there is that which will arise and begin to move forth in strength, and ascend unto the heavens, and move in an authority they have not known previously. This raising up is like a resurrection. It is an ascension. It is a moving into a rightful place and position that along ago was designated.

Sons of God will arise and come forth. They will shed off garments of shame and fear, confusion and judgment and uncertainty, and come out from under the dark cloud that has kept them concealed, contained, even in fear. LIGHT must arise in every HEART. Every SOUL is an appointed dwelling placed for LIGHT. And the light must join. It must unite. It must come forth. For surely the day that is before you is like no other previous...

'The Word will bear down upon you until you release what is given you and not hold it back in judgement; and then it will release its judgment and run its course, that your SOUL be delivered and the SOUL of all who receive this word.

For many others will also be raised up through your speaking, who also will go forth and proclaim this word, and will move in the demonstration of it as well. For a NEW ORDER must arise to construct, to build, to establish holy relationships--unified minds and hearts, so that the power of the SOUL be restored and begin to flow and move again as ONE ENTITY, ONE FORCE and ONE HEART.
