

PROPHETIC INDICATIONS*A Publication of The Glorious Restoration"Coming Changes and the Shape of Things to Come"by Ken Purvis*

As we wind down this year, moving through this Christmas season, we have all been impacted by both noticeable and subtle changes occurring in our world. We are living in a changing environment that can easily threaten our comfort zone, presenting us with choices we may not want to deal with, or feel unprepared to do so. Like Peter, we may be looking at boisterous waves, listening to contrary winds, challenging the power of our faith to walk on uncertain waters. One thing is certain, we are moving through a SHIFT of the AGES, in which past beliefs and experiences will no longer support the continuance of our present journey. That is because most of us have lived in isolation as though faith is strictly an individual experience. Yet the only way we will move through these challenges is by understanding the true nature of the MIND as God created it, which is "to be of ONE MIND." The following word expands on this thought:

20-0401-07 NIGHT WORDS-THE VANITY OF MAN'S MIND

"The vanity of MAN'S MIND is that he thinks he keeps it to himself--isolates it from all else. No mind is private. No mind is kept in secret. Though its thoughts may be hidden within the HEART and secured in the IMAGINATION, man's mind is part of a much larger living organism which is called 'CREATION.'

- All creation is joined at one level or another through the MIND.
- The original creation was a manifestation of the MIND.
- It was an expression of its ORDER, its HARMONY.

Man's MIND will be brought into check, into accountability, (as it) is the SOURCE of destruction, wasting destruction -- devastation that is coming forth upon the planet. The MIND of humanity has gone awry, very disruptive, chaotic, confused, and disorderly. But GRACE has come to bring all things back into

- a proper balance and order,

- a proper relationship and understanding of relationships--how all things move together as one living expression.

You will be shown these PLATELETS, these sections of the earth, and how they will be caused to SHIFT, even from the very CORE CENTER of the earth, and cause much disturbance, much alarm. This is how Heaven responds to humanity's DARKNESS, by bringing all things into LIGHT. Your words shall decree the exposing of these things by the announcing of coming JUDGMENTS. They must run their course. They must run their seasons until they have accomplished their work which is the fulfillment of the Word. These things will be brought to light, they will be brought to mind, they will be brought to your UNDERSTANDING. For you have been told, 'these are Ancient Voices and words.'

Rejoice to see this day, for FEAR will GOVERN humanity as long as such constructs stay in place and are allowed to disrupt and divide the unified force of MIND that belongs to ALL.

- There is nothing to protect or to preserve for one's self.
- There is nothing to keep or to hold back.

Every thought will SURFACE. The THOUGHT and INTENT of every heart will be laid bare. The SWORD of JUDGMENT is being released from Heaven, which includes even the words that you will speak. The DAY that is coming will be very disruptive,

- because you are pressing toward the end of an AGE.
- And you are pressing through into the birth pains of deliverance coming forth, out of which the Sons of God will begin to emerge and find their identity, their power, and their authority.

The world is being turned upside down, even on its head, to empty out the contents of secrecy and darkness long held in reserve, long gone unchecked. Nothing will remain hidden. That is why the Sword of the Spirit in the mouth will be released to make war upon the JUDGMENTS of humanity.

Rejoice to see this day coming, for you will be made to realize THERE IS NOTHING TO FEAR. You are not in danger. Therefore, do not isolate yourself through FEAR. For this is a day like no other.

The AGES are being called into JUDGMENT, even previous ages. For this will be the MOST DISRUPTIVE AGE, but it is the AGE when the Court is called into judgment. As said in Daniel's VISION, even the NATIONS will be called into judgment. The courts will rule in favor of the SAINTS of the MOST HIGH. For you see, INNOCENCE will not only be maintained but it will be exonerated, and

- those who move in MERCY and COMPASSION shall be exonerated and justified and delivered.
- They will be purged.

Every SOUL will be purged of iniquity. But those who come through the LIGHT, those who are cleansed and purified, shall come forth in rulership and authority; for they must also be Sons of Redemption, to help complete the redemption of the earth and every living thing.

This is not a day to be afraid.

- It is a day that true FAITH will be exonerated.
- True POWER and AUTHORITY will come forth and be exercised even in the streets as well as high places and hidden places.

Everything is being called into LIGHT.

- That is the power of TRUTH.
- That is the MISSION of the SOUL.
- And that is its RESTORATION to BEAUTY and GLORY."
