"Coming Changes and the Shape of Things to Come"

by Ken Purvis

In the fourth Issue of Volume 2, I shared a word from February 26, a portion of which I feel the need to repost as it still lingers heavily with me. Regarding the present invasion of Ukraine, we are not seeing an end in sight, but as the word indicates it will only intensify revealing a more sinister plot unfolding on a larger scale:

"There is a very forceful releasing taking place even now. And do not assume that this present invasion will taper off and reverse its course.

- It will erupt again the same way this pandemic has erupted.
- It will flare up again.
- It will rise up again and it will become more violent, more reactive.

For those who plot such destruction have no intention of reversing their intentions or ceasing their strategies. Greater forces of releasing, more destructive forces will come forth. There may be a change of strategy, a change of operational plans, but it will not lessen the severity of what is coming forth. For truly it is

- to bring about a total disruption of world order,
- to disrupt the operation of governments and nations, to undermine their authority,
- to keep them in a place that they are so unsettled, that it is very easy to take advantage of the destruction that is laying waste even now.

The following word lifts us heavenward into a higher dimension through the awakening of the SOUL. It does not address the unfolding of events in the outer world. Rather it speaks to the INNER MAN, following the ASCENDING PATH that reaches our home in the Father far beyond this world and its thinking:

22-0303 NIGHT WORDS-THE HEART THAT FINDS THE DEPTH OF ITS TREASURE
FINDS THE CORE OF ITS SOUL

"The HEART that finds the depth of its TREASURE finds the CORE of its SOUL, which is the true state of BEING, the expression of your life that stands apart as unique. You were created to be a living expression of DIVINE PRESENCE and WILL. You were called forth out of darkness into LIGHT to shine, to RADIATE life from the CENTER. But until your HEART finds its true treasure it is without meaning in this world. It is just simply a wandering bird searching aimlessly to find an identity in the world.

It is time to ARISE, to spread forth your wings and soar in your high places. You are not called to be part of the OPINION of the world, just another voice, just another idea, just another existence.

- You are called to RADIATE, to RESONATE the PRESENCE of LIFE and LIGHT.
- You are called to SHINE out of the strength of DIVINE WILL, to be LIGHT, to walk in LIGHT, to live in LIGHT.
- You are called to be a WITNESS of Heaven, that your heart express eternal truth, to resonate the FORCE of LIFE.

You cannot find meaning or purpose in this world simply by responding to thoughts, ideas, and voices of the common. When the apostle wrote these words: 'If you be RISEN with Christ, then seek those things that are above. Put to death your members on earth,' it was that you understand your life is more than dust.

- Your life was created to express the highest WILL and nature of the Divine, which is LOVE -- pure LOVE, pure LIGHT, pure BEING.
- Your life was created to give meaning, to shine above the common, to extend LIGHT that others would also step into that LIGHT and shine.

Rise up. Put aside the temporal. Seek the depth of the ETERNAL. Forsake all else. 'Seek the things that are above.' There you will find the script of your SOUL and its assignment and live out your time here that ETERNITY be restored for you." (March 3, 2022)

The course of this present outer world will always be a diversion from our true course or INNER PATH. I often think of the familiar story in Luke 10, when Jesus visited the home of his friends Mary, Martha, and Lazarus. Martha, the oldest sister was perplexed that her sister Mary did not drop what she was doing to come and assist her with the meal preparations. Seeking Jesus's cooperation to pressure her sister she instead received his reproof: "Martha, you are distracted with your many preparations, yet your sister has made the better choice," which was to sit at the feet of Jesus and listen to what he was saying. He went on to say, "Only one thing is necessary, and your sister made the better choice. What she has done will not be taken from her."

How easy it is to get so caught up in our doing and speaking that we usually neglect the greater function of listening or hearing. FAITH comes by hearing rather than seeing or doing. That means total attentiveness and stillness is needed on our part.

In closing I relate to another familiar Bible story I often use, which is Elijah's conflict and subsequent redirecting of his thinking (1 Kings 18-19). His contention with Israel brought about the miracle of "fire from Heaven," which consumed his sacrifice and verified his position. Yet the next day he is running for his life having not seen the expected sudden turnaround of Israel back to Yahweh. However, it led him to Mt. Sinai (Horeb) to discover the power of the "still small voice" or inner voice. From that point forward he would follow God's INSTRUCTION rather than pursue his own plan to bring the nation to repentance. Rather than "contending against" Israel he proclaimed only what was given him to declare to those in authority. When we extract our own opinions and ideas from situations and let God alone speak concerning them, we not only release the will of God to perform His purpose, but we also release ourselves from responsibility to make it happen.

*Be still, and know that I am God:
I will be exalted among the heathen,
I will be exalted in the earth. -- Psalm 46:10*
