"Coming Changes and the Shape of Things to Come"

by Ken Purvis

The DOMINOS are falling . . .

In last week's edition I added a word from February 12 of this year which included the following statement:

"The balance of world order and world peace will soon be disrupted, setting off a chain of events that will continue to disturb and to disrupt life. Life is on hold for many whose future is at stake. Many will be set running for safety, fleeing their homes, seeking another territory. They will be on the run for some time, but where will they go? Who will receive them? For the great disruption that is coming will be expansive. . . . Sound the alarm for the way of life of many is about to be forever disrupted."

This is one of a number I shared previously regarding the eruption of global conflict bringing about a major shift in our present world system; one that is irreversible once initiated. Russia's invasion of Ukraine is the first domino to fall with more to come. On January 26 I sent out a "special edition," due to what I sensed was the urgency of the moment, containing a word from February 19, 2021. It contained this statement:

"Prepare yourself for the sound of war. Though it often appears to be saber rattling, there is a move underneath, under foot, to strike a blow to instigate conflict. It is like a testing of the waters, a certain power which is to engage itself to push forward and yet to push back other nations. The tension is building, strife is intensifying, but there shall come those moments when a fuse is lit. It is not that it cannot be put out, but it is pushing the envelope, so to speak. It is pushing the limits because there are those who are ready to engage a more violent conflict to show their strength, their power, and to test the resolve and strength of other nations. It is just a matter of time now when these things are being brought forth into the open as a manifestation of hostility."

A second part of the same word added the following:

"And the question is, will those nations be willing to be drug into open conflict when what is at hand is an engagement that will not end suddenly or simply with diplomacy? Once shots are fired and forces are engaged there will remain a state a constant alert, war at hand. As you were told before there are nations that will move to test the strength of other nations,

- to engage for exploratory purposes, and
- to see if conditions are right for them to make certain moves.

Because there is a sense that no one else will intervene other than to voice protest. Tension among nations is about to become more volatile, which will create a greater uncertainty in the world."

The following statement from a New York Times article underscores the above statement regarding the reticence of other nations to respond with strength:

"That the U.S. and its allies have chosen not to pursue a more aggressive path helps explain why Putin has been willing to take the enormous risk of starting the most significant war in Europe in 80 years. He believes that his enemies will respond in a limited way. Not only will they decline to send troops to Ukraine; they will fight only a limited economic and diplomatic battle, too."

By David Leonhardt, The New York Times, February 25, 2022

Continuing with the February 19, 2021, word:

"When certain forces are engaged or released, there is a point in which there is no turning back. The United Nations itself will become essentially neutralized because of its own internal conflict and power struggle. This is the purpose of certain nations releasing hostility. They wish to throw the world into a state of confusion so there will not be an aligning together of forces to respond. Tensions are about to erupt."

The following statement I believe relates to "cyber-attacks" which may very well turn on us as a result of "sanctions" and other means to counter the current Russian invasion of Ukraine.

"Technology is intensifying to such a degree that it will be difficult to ascertain the source of conflict and the strength of power that it can engage. It will be a war of emotions, a war of minds, not simply a war of words, a testing of strength, a testing of skill, a testing of technology. There will not be the respect of diplomacy once effective. It is like a disease that gets out of hand and the realization of the imbalance that it creates and the resources that it strains and the weaknesses it exposes."

While Russian President Putin has made no secret of his intentions, being seen as the mastermind of this current conflict, I would be as equally concerned about world leaders, including our own, who devise evil schemes that jeopardize the welfare of their constituents, do away with free speech, open assemblies, personal liberties, wealth and property holdings. For these are representing their own self-interests at the expense of those whom they supposedly serve. This, too, will surface and be brought to light.

I believe the following line from the current word being referenced speaks to this:

"Also be aware that certain engagements occur to divert attention from other matters that are already insidiously at work to divert attention, so not to draw attention to those things that will demand a reaction or a state of emergency response.

I had paused at this point several days ago, not certain at that moment of the present effect of this invasion. It appeared Russia's aggression might be slowing down due to Ukrainian resistance and the retaliation of other nations by sanctions. I realize I was looking outwardly rather than inwardly, so I was grateful when the following word came early this morning to assure me to stay on course:

22-0226-01 NIGHT WORDS-MORE THAN ONCE YOU HAVE BEEN TOLD TO GET UP ON A TALL MOUNTAIN

"More than once you have been told to get upon a tall or a high mountain, which means come up higher to a place to see things from a distance, from a heavenly height. And that is that you may recognize the power and influence of the heavens to overshadow those things that are occurring upon the earth. As you have been told, 'Heaven will intervene.' Heaven is intervening already.

For the WORD in you that is coming forth is to declare Heaven's intention, so there be no mistake, no misunderstanding about Heaven's position, and why the response will be as it is coming in the severity of it. Why is it necessary? It is because the darkness that is buried so deep within the SOUL of humanity has created such a resistance, such a force of darkness, it is entrenched deeply within the mind, buried like a spirit of deceit or evil scheming. It is part of a plot based upon those who stand in elite positions, powerful positions, and yet secret positions by which to drive their influence forth, to seek to govern and control the outcome of events, to manipulate them to their own advantage.

For what is about to come forth will be much more specific and clear pertaining to its outcome, its direction, its location, and the severity of that which shall erupt and break forth. You want to know in your heart the direction these things are pointed toward, the force and the severity of that which is coming forth. For it is a sharp sword that shall go forth and pinpoint its target. For you see it has been spoken to you on more than one occasion about 'massive volumes of water erupting, breaking forth, flooding, causing havoc, causing destruction.' And it isn't just volumes of water breaking forth, there are other forces equally being released that will cause a great shaking, that shall impact the earth from deep within, on the surface, beneath the surface, as well as the heavens above.

Let your heart yet act in grace, however, for this is not your judgment. These are not even your words. These are your instructions. And it is to bring understanding to your heart, that you may know the intention of such words is not to bring the destruction of humanity but correction: To overthrow the violence, to overthrow the destruction, and yet to undermine the plots, the schemes that are already being released.

This invasion (of Ukraine) is only a beginning. And it is only one situation, for there shall be an eruption of a number of events from different sources and different locations. You have seen that it is like the falling of dominos. One has already been initiated; others will fall in response. It will not delay. It will not drag out between. For these things have already been plotted in secrecy. They have been conspired, even jointly among more than one nation, more than one participant. But it is to force upon the world a new position of dominance and control, even to shift the currency of the dollar, to force such change as to place power and wealth in the hands of certain ones, certain players who have manipulated to bring such things about. It is to undermine your own nation, and yet it, too, has its own secret intentions at work. This is

- why you are to understand nothing is as it appears, and
- why you are not to be swayed in any way by the voices that come out in the media, the intents that are spoken publicly.

Many of these are simply smokescreens,

- there is much more secrecy, much more cunningness and deceitfulness at work here.

- And these things are coming to a head.

It is like a secret chess game being played, plots being hatched, plans being revealed. Don't trust what you see and hear outwardly. Don't be influenced by it, rather listen to the WORD spoken within your being, that this be your intention, this be your direction. Don't hesitate to release that which is being given to you. Call it forth. Release it in a timely manner. It is time to turn your face to the wall, so to speak, and let these things be as though they were written upon the wall, declaring the timing, the direction of these events as well as the source from where they are coming.

There is a very forceful releasing taking place even now. And do not assume that this present invasion will taper off and reverse its course.

- It will erupt again the same way this pandemic has erupted.
- It will flare up again.
- It will rise up again and it will become more violent, more reactive.

For those who plot such destruction have no intention of reversing their intentions or ceasing their strategies. Greater forces of releasing, more destructive forces will come forth. There may be a change of strategy, a change of operational plans, but it will not lessen the severity of what is coming forth. For truly it is to bring about a total disruption of world order, to disrupt the operation of governments and nations, to undermine their authority, to keep them in a place that they are so unsettled, that it is very easy to take advantage of the destruction that is laying waste even now.

The significance of the VISION that will come will bring a force of clarity that you will feel its intensity within your being. You will know these are not just shallow thoughts, images passing through your own mind. But these are very deep impressions that will come of such nature you will know they are unmistakable, and you will know they are irreversible.

There is a people that are being joined to you to stand with you, to stand in agreement, to intercede with you. For this work that you are called to must run deep within the SOUL of humanity. It is a very deep, piercing sword, that will pierce to the very joint and marrow of the SOUL of humanity. And it will not turn back until a total deliverance has been initiated and Heaven's position is made very clear." (February 26, 2022)

I believe there is an escalating and spiraling contrast that will continue to deepen the divide between light and darkness. This is the result of the inward thought of humanity, the SOUL as it is being brought into light, as the thoughts and intents of every heart are being judged through the WORD of GOD (Heb. 4:12). I conclude with the following statement from a recent word with this promise of HOPE:

"This is a NEW DAY coming forth. A people shall be clothed in RIGHTEOUSNESS and in STRENGTH, and nothing shall rise to harm or touch them. They shall be lifted out of reach of the devices of mankind. Great FAVOR is coming upon such a company. Wisdom and strength and Divine Order shall establish the MIND in UNDERSTANDING.

- They shall KNOW from within their being.
- They shall learn from the instruction of the spirit within and walk on the water of the word of RELEASING and be fearful of nothing."
